Unicert

Saint-Doulchard (18230), France

listing.download.description

In the development of digital solutions for automotive sales players, The LACOUR Group is a real success in the automotive world and, at its closest to the expectations of professionals, has established itself in the market with a full range of IT products and services.

Beyond its historic federal party, the LACOUR Group has built its notoried; on products where co-iuml always coincide technological innovation and ergonomics: management of the paint station, graphics; the eacute; the encryption of port-eacute; image integration, tra-ccedil; ability of files; files , intelligent servers, responsive design, mobile applications, hellip;

Our third parties consist of agrave; create solutions to manage claims, organize body shops, enhance the costs of repairing or maintaining automobile vehicles, and addressing all players in the sector: insurers, renters, experts, manufacturers, dealers, bodybuilders,

In addition to the Services, Innovation and Digital Cores are WEB technologies, mobile applications, 3D modeling, and automotive data bases. At the cost of its customers, the LACOUR Group offers ever more diverse and efficient tools to move towards mobility. In the spirit of continuous innovation, we are committed to providing solutions that are in line with your needs and concerns.

listing.download.benifits

With its skills and experience, the LACOUR Group is ma-icirce the entire chain: design, development, marketing, installation, training and assistance.

Target audience

Logistic and transport
Home furnishing

Target audience

All sizes companies

Activities of software publishers / integraters

Dematerialization tool

listing.download.location

1 Avenue Henri Debord,
18230 Saint-Doulchard
France